CHICKEN THIEF ADMITS HIS GUILT

Indiana State Library

Arrest of Davidson Riley, 26, of Near Straughns, Made on Information from New Salem Dealer

SUSPICIONS WERE AROUSED

Jake Perkins Suspected Riley Because of Frequency of His Visits—Sold Chickens Here Also

A man giving his name as Davidson Riley, age 26, living on rural route 1, Straughns, is in jail on a charge of grand larceny, following his arrest Friday by Sheriff Hunt and deputy sheriff Spradling, in connection with the theft of chickens.

The defendant admitted his guilt, according to the officers, and will remain in jail until court opens in September unless he can provide bond. The arrest of Riley was brought about by the suspicions of Jake Perkins, store keeper at New Salem, who had bought chickens from him on several occasions, and when his trips became numerous, his suspicions were aroused.

According to the officers, the total amount of chickens sold to the New Salem dealer and at the Adams Produce Company here, reaches $98.01, making the charge for grand larceny.

The defendant had a wreck with his automobile yesterday, and when it was brought to a local garage, the rear part gave the appearance of having been used as a huckster truck. Local officers had been on the lookout for the machine with that number, as it had been given to them a few days before by the New Salem dealer.

Officers watched for Riley all day yesterday and located him about 6:30 last night. He at first denied his guilt, but he was identified by Mr. Perkins, and then he confessed to the frequent visits to the hen roosts.

The prisoner stated that he did not know the names of any of the persons from whom he had stolen the chickens, but told the officers, according to Sheriff Hunt, that he had made his hauls in all sections of the county, and as far east as Connersville.

As far as it is known, he unloaded his supply at New Salem and at the Rushville poultry house. The dealers are compelled to obtain the name of the person selling the chickens and an accurate record of the poultry bought is kept.

WAS FRANKS KILLED IN ILLINOIS OR INDIANA?

Defense Maintains That State Can Not Prove Where the Murder Actually Took Place

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION

By EDWARD C. DERR
(Written for United Press)

Chicago, July 19—Where was Robert Franks killed? In Illinois or Indiana?

Nobody knows, not even Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, youthful millionaires' sons who confessed to the killing, the defense holds.

And the foregoing is the reason why the defense believes the boys will never hang for the crime, it was exclusively revealed to the United Press today.

To convict the youthful university graduates and to send them to the gallows, the state must prove that they killed the Franks boy within the limits of Cook county, the defense points out. This, the defense claims, can never be proved.

If the state fails to prove that Franks was killed in Cook county, the case is no longer under the jurisdiction of Chicago courts.

And if the case goes to another Illinois county or to an Indiana court again it will be impossible for the prosecution to prove where Robert Franks met death, the defense claims.

SUES ON ACCOUNT

Robert O. Kennedy, local physician, today filed suit in Justice Steel's court against William T. Curry, demanding $16 on an account, alleged to be past due. The case has been set for trial Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

INTERVENTION IS DISCUSSED

Foreign Powers Expected to Make Gestures in Brazil

Buenos Aires, July 19—Intervention of foreign powers in Brazil to protect the rights of their nationals was discussed by the Argentine press today.

Italy and other European nations are expected to make an immediate gesture of protest against the inability of the government at Rio de Janeiro to give assurance that the rights of foreigners will be maintained.

The request that a United States warship be sent to Santos to maintain right of American citizens and protect American property there led to anticipation of similar action by other nations.

WEWEE LOCATED IN CONNERSVILLE

Former Rushville Man, Wanted For Assault on Girl, Arrested at 5 O'clock This Morning

TAKEN BACK TO RICHMOND

Police Fail to Locate Him Around Old Haunts Here Friday—Straughns Man Released

(Special to The Daily Republican)

Connersville, Ind., July 19—Allan Wewee, age 24 years, of Richmond and formerly of Rushville, who has been a fugitive for the past three days, since his alleged attack on a nine-year-old girl of Richmond, was captured here this morning at five o'clock by Patrolman C. A. Elwood.

The Richmond police came here after Wewee this morning and he will be arraigned in court some time today.

It was reported here that the girl's condition was serious and that Wewee may face a more serious charge than first contemplated.

Patrolman Elwood learned that Wewee was staying with a family here and went to the house early today alone to capture Wewee, who surrendered at the point of a gun.

Richmond, Ind., July 19—Police believed for a short time that their three-day search for Allan Wewee, wanted for an alleged attack on nine-year-old Evelyn Grieswell, had been brought to a successful conclusion Friday when Sheriff Dan Chapman and Officer Clessie Kendall brought in from Straughns station a youth whose resemblance to Wewee's description caused him to be held there.

The suspect, along with another young man who was traveling with him was brought here to police headquarters, where it was found that although his clothing corresponded with that worn by Wewee, his appearance did not correspond with Wewee's description. After detailed

ORDER ON BOND ISSUE RECEIVED HERE TODAY

Approves $14,500 of the $30,000
Asked by City Council to Buy Fire Truck and For Improvements

TO BE ADVERTISED FOR SALE

Phil Wilk, county auditor, this morning received the final order on $30,000 bond issue for the city of Rushville, which was contested by remonstrators.

The state tax board in their ruling received this morning, approved $14,500 and disapproved $15,500 of the issue, which is the same as the original order issued last Saturday. The order specifies it is to be used to buy additional fire equipment and provide a further water supply.

Now that the order has been officially entered here, the next step in the procedure by the city is to advertise the bond issue for sale. The law sets out that the notice of the bond sale must be given by one publication in the local newspapers of different political faith, and published in one newspaper of general circulation at Indianapolis. The one notice of the bond sale must be published at least ten days prior to the sale of the bonds.

AIN'T HUMAN NATURE WONDERFUL?

MAY DOMINATE THE CONFERENCE

Secretary of State Hughes Will Take No Part, But Will be at Hand for Consultations

HAS ARRIVED IN LONDON

Finds Conference on Experts Plan Still Deadlocked by French and British Dispute

By LLOYD ALLEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, July 19—Taking no part in the reparations conference, but here at hand where Ambassador Kellogg and the American participants can consult him, Secretary Hughes was looked upon today by European statesmen as the possible dominating figure behind the scenes of this, the fifteenth inter-allied effort since Versailles to make Germany pay.

Secretary Hughes arrived in London to find the conference still deadlocked in committee stage—France and Britain disputing over the former's right to a free hand with Germany in case she is adjudged to have defaulted payments. The committee that is considering recommendations on this matter met today and reported progress but efforts of the Italian, Belgian and American members failed to reconcile the British and French viewpoints.

In an interview, Hughes reiterated he would take no part in the inter-allied conference but said he was "making no attempt to conceal American interest in the experts plan."

Hughes arranged to meet Premier MacDonald of Britain and Premier Herriot of France personally, but informally, while here.

The presence of the head of the state department in London will obviously facilitate action by Ambassador Kellogg, Colonel James A. Logan, Jr., and other Americans who are taking part in the conference.

They now will be able frequently to confer with Hughes instead of being obliged as previously to use the cable.

Wheeler planned to make a statement about noon today announcing his acceptance and explaining his reasons for the decision to run with La Follette.

SUMMER SCHOOL ENROLLMENT BIG

Of the 1,550 Students Taking Courses at Indiana, Nine Are Listed From Rush County

SPECIAL TEACHER'S COURSE

Faculty of 124 Teachers Conducts 275 Courses at the University During Summer

Bloomington, Ind., July 19—The thirty-fifth annual summer session of Indiana university includes in its enrollment of approximately 1550 students Miss Lillian Mullins, Birney D. Farthing, and Eugene B. Butler, of Rushville, and six other Rush county students.

The total enrollment this year is about 100 less than that for last year. Advanced students are approximately the same in number as last year, while the new students number about 100 less than at last year's session. This is thought to be due to the ruling by the State Board of Education that high school graduates in order to qualify for teaching positions under the new law should begin their required year of training at the opening of the regular fall term of 1924 rather than in the summer term. As a result, the enrollment in the fall is expected to be heavier than usual among students who expect to take up teaching as a profession.

More than 400 students have signed up for the special three weeks' intensive course for teachers which starts August 9 as a supplementary session to the regular eight and one-half weeks' summer term. For those taking the extra course, a heavy schedule of daily recitations and correspondingly heavy requirements for outside work have been arranged. An additional two and one-half weeks' session will follow.

U. S. VICE CONSUL BEATEN TO DEATH

Native Mob of Teheran, Persia, Resents Attempt of Major Imbrie to Photograph "Magic Fountain"

ANOTHER AMERICAN WOUNDED

American and European Colonies in Persian Capital Are in State of Consternation

Washington, July 19—Upon receipt of official confirmation today of the killing of Robert W. Imbrie, American vice consul at Teheran, the United States government prepared vigorous action to secure amends for the murder.

Confirmation of the killing of Imbrie arrived at the state department from the American legation at Teheran.

The first news of the killing of Imbrie was received by the state department today from Imbrie's wife, who is at Teheran. An official confirmation from the legation was received later.

Teheran, Persia, July 19—Major Robert W. Imbrie, American vice consul, was beaten to death by a native mob here Thursday.

The Persians resented an attempt by Major Imbrie to photograph a so-called "magic fountain" of which the natives stand in awe.

An American who was with the consul was severely wounded and is in a hospital.

Robert Whitney Imbrie was born in Washington, D. C., April 23, 1884 and was graduated from George Washington University in 1905. He was engaged in the practice of law 1909-15. He volunteered in the French Army in 1915 and served until 1917. Appointed vice consul at Petrograd August 24, 1917, he later was assigned as vice consul at Viborg December 22, 1919. He was sent to Constantinople as vice consul October 13, 1920.

Major Imbrie was married less than two years ago to Miss Katherine Gillespie of New Rochelle, New York, when she was directing the Near East Relief orphanage in the former Turkish capital.

London, July 19—The American and European colonies are in a state of consternation, following reports from Teheran, the Persian capital, that Major Imbrie, U. S. vice consul, had died as a result of wounds sustained at the hands of a mob which beat him to death. Another American is seriously wounded in a hospital according to the Evening News, which lacks full particulars of the affair.

HEARD DR. WEDDERSPOON

J. H. Scholl Says Minister Coming to Chautauqua is Pleasing Speaker

J. H. Scholl, former secretary of the Rush county chautauqua, heard the Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon, who will be at the chautauqua this year, at St. James Methodist Episcopal church, of which he is pastor, in Chicago last Sunday.

Mr. Scholl says that Dr. Wedderspoon is a man of great ability and a very pleasing speaker. The Rushville man talked with him regarding his forthcoming visit to Rushville and he was very much interested in coming.

Dr. Wedderspoon is one of the foremost ministers in Chicago. He does not make many chautauque addresses and the Rush county program committee regards it as fortunate that it was possible to include him on this year's program.

CIRCUS BOOKED FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Feature Attraction, Out of the Ordinary, Will Appeal to Children of Rush County

FROM AGES "SIX TO SIXTY"

Children's Circus Will Appear Here at The Assembly on Wednesday Night August 13

There is at least one circus that will visit Rushville this season, and it is scheduled to appear here Wednesday night, August 13, at 8:30 o'clock.

This circus is the Children's Circus, one of the headline attractions for the Rush County Chautauqua, which will be held this year from August 10 to the 17, inclusive.

The attraction for Wednesday night, August 13, is heralded as "what the children have always wanted", and it will not only appeal to the children, but also prove a good attraction and worth one's time for the grown-ups.

The program consists of so many entertaining features of real merit that the age of the children will not matter, according to the lyceum bureau that has charge of the bookings for the circus. "Children from six to sixty will be entertained as they have never before been treated, with such a performance on the Chautauqua stage," according to the announcement.

In commenting upon this special feature of the Rush County Chautauqua for August 13, the lyceum bureau says as follows:

Here are some of the things which this company of three people presents. A wonderful troupe of trained cockatoos who do marvelous things which are almost unbelievable. This feature has been a big act on the largest vaudeville circuit for many years, and we have had to make a

LARGE FORCES ARE THROWN ABOUT MINES

Effort Made to Prevent Interference in Oklahoma Territory Where Open Shop Prevails

WORKERS DRIVEN FROM MINES

(By United Press)

Wibouton, Okla., July 19—Large forces of guards were thrown today around mines in this territory operating on an open shop basis to prevent threatened interference by union sympathizers.

National guard troops were held in readiness to be rushed here in case the situation gets beyond control of local authorities.

The first outbreak occurred when 100 sympathizers with miners on strike descended on the Kali-Inda Mine, disarmed guards and forced 175 men to leave the works.

Sheriff Austin Park said he had been informed non-union workers in the Deagan and McConnell Mine were warned that if they reported for work today they would be driven out. He sent a squad of deputies to protect the men and property.

TWO WEEKS UNTIL THE FIRST CAMP

Rotary-Kiwanis Fund Provided For Boys Who Are Unable to Attend For Financial Reasons

MEETING MONDAY EVENING

Boys Will Be Taken to Camp And Brought Home in Busses—More Park History Given

With only two weeks elapsing before the opening of the first Rush county boys' camp at Turkey Run state park, active preparations are being made for the month's outing by D. R. Merrell, local Scoutmaster, and the boys' work committees of the Rotary and Kiwanis club, who are cooperating with him.

The committees announced today that there is a fund available to be used to help those boys who wish to attend one of the camps, but are not able to do so because of financial reasons.

All boys who have not yet signed up for Turkey Run and who would like to go are asked to meet at the court house assembly room Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Every boy in Rushville who wants to go to camp should be at this meeting.

It will help matters considerably if the boys who attend will be prepared to tell Mr. Merrell or some other member of the committee just how much they can pay on the two weeks period. The fund is available for boys of either the younger or older boys camp and no boy should feel at all embarrassed by attending the meeting. Parents are also asked to be present Monday night if they have any questions to ask regarding the camps.

Final arrangements for camp will be made after Monday night and but few more boys can be accommodated after that date.

The committee in charge consists of Clarence Walden, Al Spanagel, Raymond C. Hargrove, Curtis Hester, George Davis, Frank Abernethy, George Wilkie, Charles F. Wilson and Roy E. Harrold.

The younger boys' camp will begin August 4 and continue for two weeks and on the eighteenth, the older boys' camp will open and run until August 30.

Efforts are now being made to engage busses to haul the boys to and from the camps. Beginning next week lists of equipment and instructions will be published, and it is urged that they all be cut out of the paper and preserved for future use.

During the past week, a series of articles regarding the history of

THRESHING WILL GET UNDER WAY NEXT WEEK

Two Companies Ready to Start This Morning and Others Plan to Begin Monday

OPEN IN UNION AND POSEY

Threshing will not become general Conifer farm in Anderson township, first of next week, it was predicted today.

The first wheat threshed in the county this year was on the Riley throughout Rush county before the and it averaged about twenty-eight bushels to the acre.

No other threshing was scheduled for the southern part of the county this week, but a number of companies are planning to begin Monday.

A company of threshing started on the Roy Alexander farm near Gings this morning. A few bushels were run through the machine Friday evening and it was found that the grain was not as dry as it should be, but Mr. Alexander was assured that the wheat would be accepted at the Reed elevator in Gings, and threshing began in earnest this morning.

Another threshing company was prepared to begin work on the Thomas McCoy farm in Posey township this morning, but trouble with the machine delayed the start. If repairs could be made, it was planned to thresh today.

NOTIFICATION WILL BE WITHIN MONTH

Formal Ceremony Notifying Coolidge of His Nomination Tentatively Set For August 19

TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON

General Charles G. Dawes Will be Told Few Days Later He Has Been Selected as Running Mate

Washington, July 19—The formal notification of President Coolidge will take place in Washington about the 19th of August and similar ceremonies will be held at Evanston, Illinois a few days later when General Charles G. Dawes will be formally told that he has been selected as the running mate for Coolidge.

The speech of acceptance by the President will, according to close friends, be a document that will be understood by all the people. It will, no doubt, be as plain as was his first message to congress, which it will be remembered brought forth thousands of letters and telegrams from all sections of the nation, complimenting him upon his honest declaration of principles and the straight-forward stand he had taken upon public questions. There will again be demonstrated to the people that the President is unafraid, that he refuses to use high sounding phrases in order to catch votes, or to offer to the people some theoretical cure-all that everyone who stops to think will realize could not be put in force. Coolidge has always been honest with the people. He believes that they should be told the truth. He believes in their intelligence and their desire to do the right thing by their government, and he means to see that their government does the right thing by them.

Coolidge is the kind of a President who believes it his duty to use all the power of his office to see that the people of the United States are given a square deal. He believes it his duty to aid in bringing the greatest amount of prosperity possible to all sections of the nation. He takes his job seriously and thinks less of the great honor of being president than he does of the opportunity that has been given to him to be of real service to his fellow citizens.

heavy guarantee in order to secure it. One member of this company is a clever juggler, a feature which chautauqua committees have been asking for in vain for the past ten years. He is also a magician and will entertain the children by his sleight of hand.

A Punch and Judy show is also a part of the act—something that all of the children have heard about but few of them have seen. To cap the climax a most delightful and jolly clown takes the part of the juggler and magician.

Altogether it is the most complete novelty act which has been placed on the Chautauqua program for years.

MOVIES

"The Rejected Woman"

For the first time in their distinguished careers, Alma Rubens and Conrad Nagel have been starred together. They will be seen in "The Rejected Woman," which came to the Princess theatre Friday for two days. These two players have achieved world-wide reputation for their ability to portray dramatic roles of modern life, and in this latest feature of Distinctive Pictures they have opportunities for acting never before afforded them by any of their film plays.

"The Rejected Woman" is a society romance written especially for these stars by John Lynn, veteran screen dramatist, and directed by Albert Parker.

The story is a novel treatment of the theme, "Must a girl have pretty clothes to get along?" This theme is developed in a swiftly moving drama with scenes in Canada and in New York. It has been lavishly set and costumed by the producers.

The principals of the supporting cast are Wyndham Standing and Leonora Hughes, the celebrated dancer. Others in the picture are George Masquarrie, Bela, Lagosi, Antonio D'Algy, Mmc. La Violette, Aubrey Smith and Fred Burton.

Mary Carr in Leading Role

"Broadway Broke" is the significant title of the Murray W. Garsson special production from Saturday Evening Post story by Earl Derr Biggers, which opened at the Castle theatre for an engagement of two days last night. But, there is more to the meaning of the title than just that.

By remarkable coincidence, Mary Carr is playing the leading feminine role and the story might have been written around her career on the Great White Way. Playing opposite her is Percy Marmont, star of the film version of A. S. M. Hutelinyon's novel, "If Winter Comes."

"There is a world of meaning to the phrase, 'Broadway Broke,'" said Miss Carr. "The average individual rides the ragged chap sitting on a park bench, or on the cold curb at Times Square—and rightfully, too. But that man is just as liable to be broke anywhere. It's all one to him whether he's broke on Broadway or State street. The real tragedy is in the man or woman who is actually 'Broadway Broke.'" investigation had disclosed that neither was Wewee, the two young men were released. They said they were from Hamilton, Ohio, and on their way to Indianapolis.

At about the same hour that word came of the arrest of the two suspects at Straughn, the police answered two other calls from in the city reporting the appearance of men resembling Wewee. Both reports were found erroneous.

During the past two days dozens of reports have come to police headquarters of Wewee's appearance in various neighborhoods in the city, in the country surrounding and even far over in Ohio. Every one of these reports has been followed down by the police or sheriff, in the belief that Wewee in the end is likely to be caught through this means.

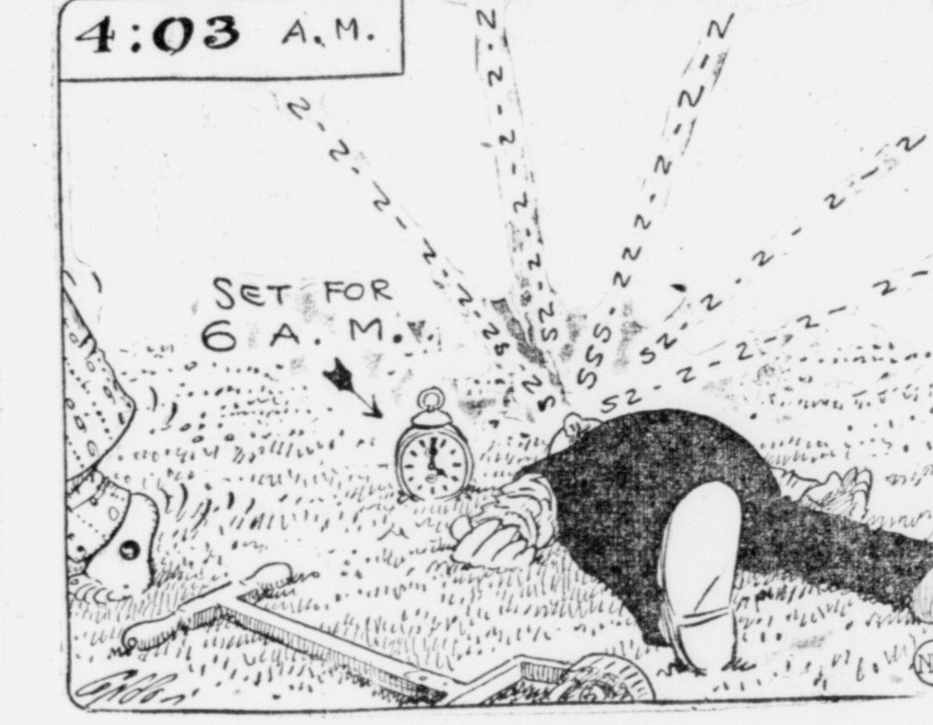

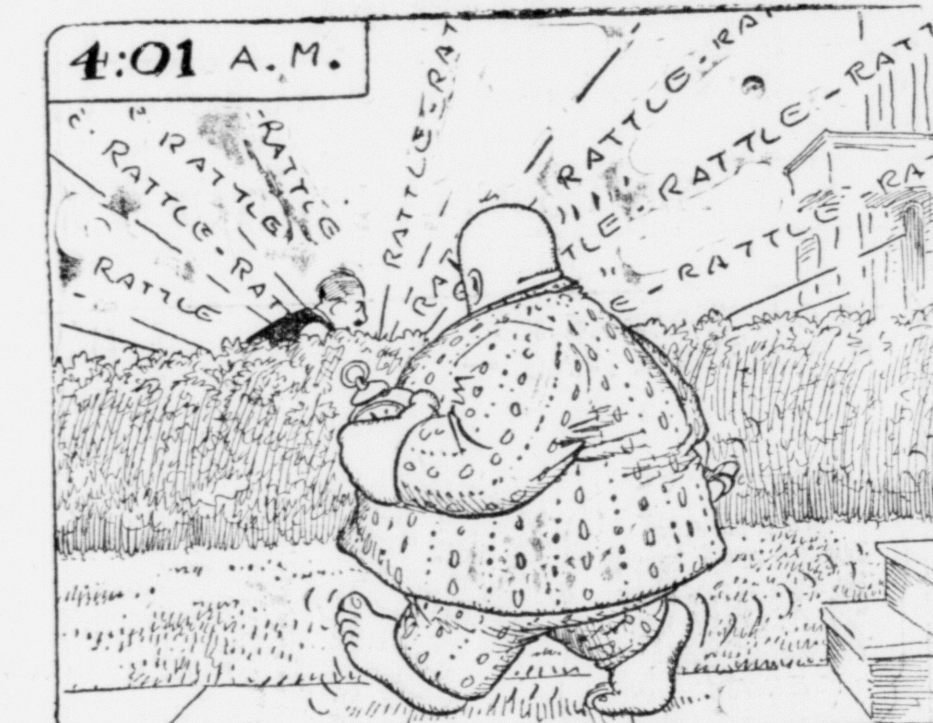

Several times Friday two or more police officers were hunting Wewee in different vicinities at the same time, as the result of telephone "tips."

Richmond police officers' search for Wewee in his old haunts here Friday was fruitless.

Dudley, a former Rushville newspaper man, who is now city editor of the Richmond Item, led the Richmond police down here yesterday afternoon because of his familiarity with local surroundings.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Her Suffering and Restored Her Health

Momence, Illinois.—"I surely can recommend your medicine to other women who have female weakness, as it has helped me very much in every way possible. I was working in a dining room in town, and sometimes I could not do my work; had pains in the lower part of my body and had to stay in bed. One of my neighbors told me what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and it has surely done wonders for me. I hope all women who suffer will take my advice as the Vegetable Compound has done so much to bring back my vigor and strength."—Mrs. ALBERT E. DESCHAUD, Momence, Illinois.

Over 121,000 women have so far replied to our question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 percent. of these replied "Yes." That is 98 out of every 100 women who take this medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it. For sale by druggists everywhere.

OWNERS NOT RESPONSIBLE

Indiana Supreme Court Hands Down Decision in Marion County Case

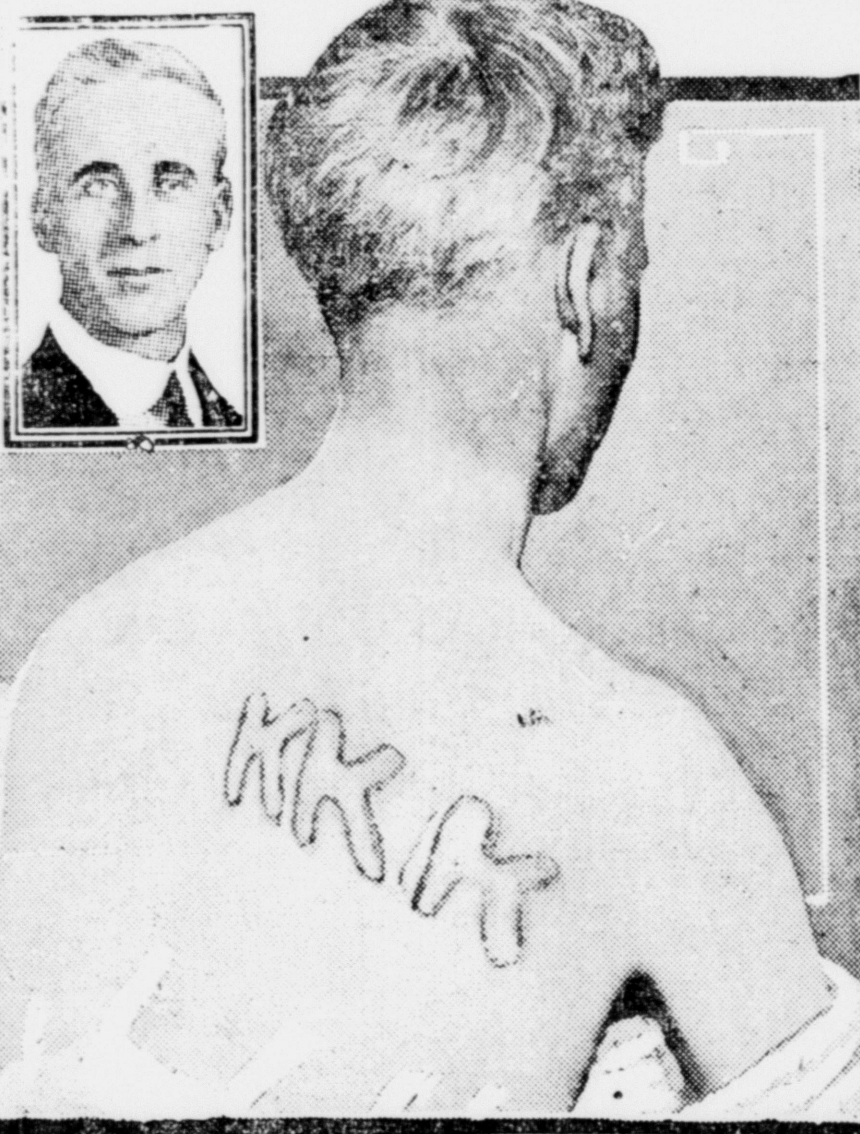

Indianapolis, Ind., July 19—The owner cannot be held responsible for accidents involving his automobile driven by another party unless that party is a paid employee, according to a decision handed down by the Indiana Supreme Court today.

The judgment in which the decision was rendered reversed the action of the Marion county Superior court awarding Bernard Henry, of Indianapolis $750 as a result of an accident in which he was struck by a local laundry truck. According to the opinion of the higher court, evidence did not show that the truck driver was an employee of the company.

Who Branded Minister?

The letters "K. K. K." are seared upon his back. But Rev. Orrin Van Loon of Berkeley, Mich., a Detroit suburb, insists he remembers nothing of the branding. The minister had started for Lake Orion, Mich., to attend a Bible conference. Nearly two weeks later he was found unconscious on the streets of Battle Creek. He had lost 30 pounds and his hair had turned from gray to white. Doctors declared he had been drugged. Rev. Van Loon said he recalled nothing from the time he cashed a check at a bank in Royal Oak, near his home, until he awakened in the hospital in Battle Creek.

NARCOTIC LAW IS VIOLATED

Sale of Paregoric to Drug Addicts to be Probed in State

Indianapolis, Ind., July 19—Federal agents have started a drive to stamp out sale of paregoric to drug addicts. The drive is to extend all over Indiana, according to officials in charge of the campaign.

Arrest of two Indianapolis druggists, signaled the beginning of the drive. The druggists were charged with violation of the Harrison narcotic act.

Each fluid ounce of paregoric contains nearly two grains of opium according to the agents and its sale to known or suspected addicts constitutes a violation of the drug laws.

TO BUY 25 STEEL CARS

Union Traction Company to Finance Purchase in Notes and Bonds

Indianapolis, Ind., July 19—The state public service commission has authorized the Union Traction company to issue $622,000 in short time notes and $1,000,000 in bonds to finance the purchase of new equipment including 25 new steel cars.

Recommendation that the traction company purchase steel cars and scrap the old wooden cars was made by the commission in its report on the Fortville wreck in which nearly 200 persons lost their lives early last February.

The commission's report said the death toll would probably have been much smaller if the cars which crashed head on had been of steel instead of wood construction.

Marion—This city lost its chance for fame when Democrats failed to nominate E. T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture for the presidency. Meredith's mother was born here.

An old man's testimony:—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.—2 Timothy 4:7.

Prayer:—Most Merciful God, we have often failed and refused to fight, but Thy mercy has given us another chance; keep us steadfast in the faith from now on.

Diamonds at Home

Many people have heard and scores of others have read "Acres of Diamonds", a lecture delivered thousands of times by Russell H. Conwell.

It is founded upon the incident of the restless man who dreamed of riches in a land afar off; who sold his farm and searched the world for riches, only to die a lonely, unattended pauper in a far-away land.

The children of the man who bought his farm, while playing in the garden one day, found pretty stones, which their father discovered were diamonds, and there were actually "acres of diamonds"—fabulous wealth—on the farm the first man had sold and abandoned in order to search for riches he imagined existed elsewhere.

But the man who couldn't see his "acres of diamonds" was typically human. The grass in our neighbor's yard is always greener; his flowers bloom more beautifully; he seems to get along so much more easily than we; in sum, he has all the good luck and we have all of the misfortune.

Isn't it about time that we begin to search for our "acres of diamonds"? Take stock of our many advantages, make the most of them and discount our disadvantages and be rid of them.

Neighboring communities have things we haven't. But we in turn have priceless possessions that they do not have.

The buyer of the farm with "acres of diamonds" did not leave the gems in the ground. Once discovered, he mined them, of course, and cashed in on his discovery.

Every community possesses its "acres of diamonds". The progress of each depends upon the ingenuity of the people in discovering them, mining them and selling them.

The people of Rush county are blessed with good soil, a climate suitable for diversified farming and rare marketing facilities.

Intelligent care and development of the soil, study of crop conditions and organized effort in selling will make our "acres of diamonds" profitable.

A Race For Kings

With two international efforts to open the globe by air under way, interest quickens at the reports of repeated reverses the aviators of the United States, France and England are overcoming in their mad dash for air supremacy.

It is veritably a race for kings,

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

WASHINGTON—Clem L. Shaver, whom John W. Davis has asked to run the Democratic presidential campaign, is a "little shaver," physically, but apparently measures up to all major league specifications as a political fox.

Shaver, who managed Davis' pre-convention campaign, never let it loom as a threat to other hopeful would-be candidates. He maintained it always as a sort of "last resort" candidacy which in no way interfered with the fights being made to build up support for McAdoo and Smith, or even Ralston, Underwood or Glass.

He didn't allow the Davis boom to push or crowd, or to get puffed up unduly to a size where it might invite the barbed hatpins of jealous rivals.

Shaver didn't swell around the corridors of the Waldorf or the aisles of Madison Square Garden, telling how at the psychological moment he would "put" Davis over.

A little gray faced, stoop-shouldered man who looked constantly tired, almost dejected, he simply told what a great chance the party had if it would only look to John W. Davis to save it from its troubles.

He rubbed nobody the wrong way, stepped on no tender toes, and got the good will of all groups for himself personally as well as for his candidate.

If it is a political diplomat Davis needs to weld his forces for the coming campaign, Shaver would seem to have qualified.

A MUCH less passive sort of person, one who believes in strong words and aggressive methods, is John M. Nelson, the manager of Senator La Follette's independent campaign.

Nelson, next to Nick Longworth, is the boldest man in Congress. But instead of the symmetrically rounded cranial dome of Longworth, Nelson's bare expanse of scalp exposes a rough-hewn head, suggestive of ability to withstand many bumps and to deliver as good as is sent—even butting in ram-fashion, with his head, when feet and fists fail.

It was Nelson who led the La Follette fight last fall for a revision of the House rules. He stood up, unmoved, against the most withering and devastating cynicism and satire the word wizards of Congress could direct against him.

He didn't care what the regulars thought of him or his fellows, or what they called him, so long as they amended the rules.

He checkmated every move to entangle him in parliamentary red tape, or to substitute for his proposals any political panacea of the "just-as-good" brand.

His bald head and bald speech were the highlights of that memorable battle.

THE title of "Bleeding Kansas" won by the Sunflower state because of the bitter battles between the abolitionists and pro-slavery groups preceding the Civil War, may properly be revived before the coming political holocaust is ended.

For Kansas is slated to become the geographical storm center of the political tornado, centering over the middle west, during the presidential campaign.

Orders have gone out from Republican headquarters that Kansas must be held secure, at all costs, against the assaults to be made upon it by the La Follette forces.

La Follette's forces, believing that the loss of Kansas by the Coolidge cohorts will deprive the president of a majority and send the election into Congress, will send their shock troops into action there.

And the Democrats, hoping to salvage something from the fray for their candidate, will join in the general free-for-all.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT
OPEN FOR BOYSFirst Annual Open Western Meet for Boys And Juniors Will be Held at Culver

BEGINNING WEEK JULY 28

Young Tennis Aspirants Will be Given Opportunity to Enjoy Surroundings at the LakeCulver, Ind., July, 18.—The first annual open Western clay courts tennis tournament for boys and juniors will be held on the courts of Culver
Military academy the week beginning July 28.The tournament is the outgrowth of the Indiana state open boys' and juniors' championships held on the academy courts last summer. That meet attracted boys from Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio and the United States Lawn Tennis Association promptly recognized its appeal to the youthful players and advanced it to the rating of an official western event for 1924.A particular attraction to the young tennis aspirants are the opportunities offered for a pleasant summer outing during the progress of the play. The courts are on the shores of Lake Maxinkussee and the entire recreational and sports facilities of the Culver Summer Schools have been placed at the entertainment committee.Swimming and boating will be especially featured for the visitors and lodging and meals will be furnished by the Summer Schools at nominal cost through arrangements made by the board of trustees as the school's contribution towards furthering boys' sports.The entries in each class will be limited to sixty-four. Amateurs only are eligible. The age limit for boys is 15, and for juniors, 15 to 18. Cups will be awarded by the Culver Military Academy Tennis Club which will be host. H. A. Jeughton of the athletic staff of the academy is chairman of the committee and is in charge of the entries.JACK ZIVIC LOOKS LIKE A CHAMPIONBy FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)New York, July 19.—Of all the lightweights who aspire to the crown which Bennet Leonard cannot much longer hope to wear, young Jack Ziv-ic of Pittsburgh looks the most promising.Four years ago, around this time, Jack and his brother Pete were knocking over little Hungarians and Swedes and Brazilians in amateur bouts at the Olympic games at Antwerp.Since then, the Zivic brothers have risen—if you like—to the professional ranks. Pete, the elder, is a feather, Jack, is a lightweight.This Jack is a workmanlike cuss, who is at present engaged with five or six other aspirants in a series of elimination bouts to see who is the best man to take a sock at Leonard—and probably a beating at the workmanlike hands of the champ.Zivic disposed of the first two aspirants with whom he tangled, although he lost to Pal Moran of New Orleans on a technical foul. He was land, will battle at the Garden City course, New York, in September for been selected and will be headed by Cyril Tolley, former amateur champion, and recent winner of the French open championship.The rest of the invading team will be made up of O. B. Bristowe,

C. L. Hezlet, W. L. Hope, D. K.
Kyle, W. A. Murray, Robert Scott
Jr., Michael Scott, T. A. Torrance and E. F. Storey.The American team has yet to be somewhat over-clever, beating to the southern veteran, that there was never any doubt as to which was the better man.Then came Sid Barbarian, an ambitious young Armenian boy from Detroit, and he was handily knocked off by the Pittsburgher.Zivic is a pleasure to watch. He is more active than Leonard, but there is something in his business-like way of going about things that reminds one of the title-holder. The former amateur can take on all kinds, but a rushing, tearing fighter is his particular dish. Jack is a two-handed fighter. He can keep his head, and weather the worst storms. And he can hit, although not as hard as Leonard.By and large, the Pittsburgh boy looks best of the challengers. He is a style which leads one to look for big things from him in the future. He has a head, and uses it.Leonard is gaining weight, and soon will be unable to defend his title.

He would beat Zivic now because of his greater defensive skill and his knowledge of the fighting game, but Jack would give him a tougher battle than any of the others.For an example of gameness, the performance of the negro lad, De-Hart Hubbard, of the University of Michigan, in the finals of the broad jump in the Olympics at Paris is hard to beat.On his first leap, something more than 24 feet, Hubbard suffered aFAKE ARRESTS ON carried by state wardens are round in shape and bear this inscription: In-badge also has a number. The old badges issued prior to the department's creation bear no number and are star shaped. They were recalled said. If a violation is discovered by him he is charged only with the duty such evidence possible to prosecute the offender in an authorized court officials indicate that several wealthy and prominent men in the north part of the state, arrested by whom they supposed were wardens, made cash court. Several cases reported actually showed the men "help up" had ac-

Opening of the 1924 Olympic Games

Here is the opening of the Olympic games at Colombes Stadium, Paris. Athletes of all nations participated in the parade preceding the preliminary events. The United States, needless to say, easily landed first place, with Finland finishing second.

Among the pretty pre-nuptial events that have been given for Miss Helen Scudder, a bride-elect of this month, was the wedding breakfast given by the Misses Mary and Jesse Anderson Friday morning at their home south of the city. The home was prettily decorated for the event in bouquets of summer flowers and covers were laid for twenty guests.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mahin will entertain at their home in North Jackson street, the members of the Progressive Boosters Class of the First Baptist church. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. R. W. Sage will be the assisting hostess.

Mrs. Horatio Havens entertained with a one o'clock luncheon Friday at her home in North Harrison, honoring her guests, the Misses Elizabeth and Georgeanna Tallar, of Detroit, Mich. Other out-of-town guests present were Miss Alice Elizabeth Harb, of Franklin, Ind., house guest of Miss Betty Waggener, and Miss Frances Jaquith of Indianapolis, who is visiting Miss Spanagel, and Naomi Nash and Pauline Cotton, of north of the city.

This morning at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Brecheisen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brecheisen, and Vernon Hardwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hardwick, both residents of this city, were married at the Manse, 122 West Fifth street, by the Rev.

Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. They were accompanied by Mrs. Robert Marshall and Mrs. W. H. Rittenmier. The bride was beautiful in a dress of salmon colored crepe de chine and wore a corsage of Columbia roses. After a motor trip through the southern part of the state, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick will be at home to their friends at 203 West First street where they have furnished rooms. The bride is book-keeper at the I. & C. Traction Company and the bridegroom is employed at the Coco Cola Bottling Works.

On Wednesday evening a number of relatives and friends delightfully surprised Mrs. Ernest Cummins at her home in Homer, honoring her fiftieth birthday anniversary. During the evening, which was spent socially, refreshments of brick ice cream, cake, candy and lemonade were served. Those who were present to enjoy the evening besides Mr. and Mrs. Cummins and daughter Mabel were: Mr. and Mrs. Fon Miller and daughter Frances Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller and daughter Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Abernathy, Mrs. Mary Anne Abernathy, Mrs. Ina Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown and daughter Mary Marjorie, Mrs. Mary Westerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Miller, daughter Ruth and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Rae Miller, William Brannan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Martin and daughter Sonoma, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Krammes and family, Mr. and Mrs.

FOR STREET

Here's the "three-piece suit" for summer, as Paris sees it. A sleeveless frock of black crepe de chine with trimming of white embroidery, and a short, straight coat similarly adorned. It is particularly recommended for street wear.

Will Frow, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Veatch, Max Taylor of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Veatch, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willis and son Byron and Miss Sarah Brannan.

The following girls enjoyed a wienner roast and marshmallow toast Friday evening north of the city: The Misses Ruth Webber, Edna Waggoner, Rena Runt, Helen Connely, Elizabeth Goodbar, Katherine Williams, Helen Baker and Mrs. Bessie Levi.

Mrs. Clifford Gottman of Chicago, Ill., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cox in this city, entertained the members of her card club Friday afternoon. The guests enjoyed the hours over the card tables playing bridge, and dainty refreshments were served at the close.

The Clarksburg Diana Lodge, 536, Daughters of Rebekah, began the work of another term of six months, by the installation of new officers at a meeting held recently. Preceding the installation work, the regular routine of lodge work was taken up, including reports of the secretaries and treasurer, showing the affairs of the organization as being in good condition. The installation ceremony was conferred by Mrs. Ethel Osborn, installing officer appointed by Mrs. Alice Van Pelt, district deputy for Decatur county. The following are the officers: Noble grand Mrs. Emma Linville; vice grand Mrs. Alice Vail; secretary, Miss Mabel DeWiert, R. S. noble grand, Mrs. Laura Morgan; L. S. noble grand Mrs. Nelle Clark; R. TWO WEEKS UNTIL THE FIRST CAMP

Turkey Run park have been printed and have increased the interest of boys of the community in the park. Further bits of interesting history of the park will be given next week. Today's chapter follows:

Late in 1921 there was acquired from the Hoosier Veneer Co., one hundred and ninety acres of land joining the park on the east and south. No suitable price could be arranged so it was necessary to resort to the power of eminent domain. The value of the land was set at $55 per acre, which price was paid. From this area all the large timber had been cut but there still remained a good cover of small trees. The topography is rugged and a series of interesting gullies is included.

This acquisition gave the park an outlet on the state highway and in order to make use of it a road was necessary. Such a winding scenic road was planned by the Division of Engineering of the Department and constructed by Roland Lake, state superintendent of Parks. At its junction with the old park road on the hill above the swinging bridge, a trestle 165 feet long and 45 feet high was erected to carry it across the deep gulch.

Up to this time this gulch had no name and the commission thought it fitting to name it Newby Gulch in honor of Arthur C. Newby an Indianapolis citizen who gave very substantial donations to make the preservation of Turkey Run possible.

At the entrance to the road from the State Highway a toll gate was erected with a small lodge for the gate keeper. This gate is a replica of those used in the toll roads of the state years ago and its significance here because each visitor must pay his toll of ten cents towards the maintenance and improvement of the park.

Leaving this part of the park and following the old park road past Camp Red Wing, where the Rush County boys will be located, and over the Turkey Run Hollow Arch, the visitor comes to a small path leading to the right. Following this path through a very beautiful portion of the woods we soon come to the little Old Log church. This place

SHATTERED NERVES

Lady Says She Was In a Desperate Condition, But "Now In Splendid Health" After Taking Cardui.

Dale, Ind.—"About three years ago," says Mrs. Flora Roberts, of this place, "I had the flu, which left me in a desperate condition. I had a bad cough. I went down in weight to little over one hundred pounds. I took different medicines—did everything, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I hurt so badly in the chest at times I would have to go to the door to get my breath. "I would have the headache and . . . was so weak I felt like I would just have to sink down and stay there. "My nerves were shattered. I looked for something awful to happen—I would tremble and shake at a noise. "My mother said, 'Do try Cardui', and my husband insisted till I began to use. I used two bottles of Cardui . . . and noted a big improvement in my condition. I kept up the Cardui and weigh 180 pounds. I am again in splendid health—sure am a firm believer in Cardui, for I'm satisfied it did the work." After a weakening illness a tonic is needed to help regain lost strength. Many thousands of women have found Cardui exactly what they needed for this purpose. It may be just what you need. Try it. All druggists'. NC-155 has been preserved as nearly as possible the way it was when the pioneers used it for a place of worship. The pulpit, benches and altar are all of the very crude type all work having been done by hand with only an axe, adze and drawing knife. In this church which is kept reverent at all times the campers hold their Sunday worship.

CHICKEN THIEF ADMITS HIS GUILT

Indiana State Library
Arrest of Davidson Riley, 26, of Near Straughns, Made on Information from New Salem Dealer

SUSPICIONS WERE AROUSED

Jake Perkins Suspected Riley Because of Frequency of His Visits—Sold Chickens Here Also

A man giving his name as Davidson Riley, age 26, living on rural route 1, Straughns, is in jail on a charge of grand larceny, following his arrest Friday by Sheriff Hunt and deputy sheriff Spradling, in connection with the theft of chickens.

The defendant admitted his guilt, according to the officers, and will remain in jail until court opens in September unless he can provide bond.

The arrest of Riley was brought about by the suspicions of Jake Perkins, store keeper at New Salem, who had bought chickens from him on several occasions, and when his trips became numerous, his suspicions were aroused.

According to the officers, the total amount of chickens sold to the New Salem dealer and at the Adams Produce Company here, reaches $98.01, making the charge for grand larceny.

The defendant had a wreck with his automobile yesterday, and when it was brought to a local garage, the rear part gave the appearance of having been used as a buckster truck. Local officers had been on the lookout for the machine with that number, as it had been given to them a few days before by the New Salem dealer.

Officers watched for Riley all day yesterday and located him about 6:30 last night. He at first denied his guilt, but he was identified by Mr. Perkins, and then he confessed to the frequent visits to the hen roosts.

The prisoner stated that he did not know the names of any of the persons from whom he had stolen the chickens, but told the officers, according to Sheriff Hunt, that he had made his hauls in all sections of the county, and as far east as Connersville.

As far as it is known, he unloaded his supply at New Salem and at the Rushville poultry house. The dealers are compelled to obtain the name of the person selling the chickens and an accurate record of the poultry bought is kept.

WAS FRANKS KILLED IN ILLINOIS OR INDIANA?

Defense Maintains That State Can Not Prove Where The Murder Actually Took Place

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION

By EDWARD C. DERR
(Written for United Press)

Chicago, July 19—Where was Robert Franks killed? In Illinois or Indiana?

Nobody knows, not even Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, youthful millionaires' sons who confessed to the killing, the defense holds.

And the foregoing is the reason why the defense believes the boys will never hang for the crime, it was exclusively revealed to the United Press today.

To convict the youthful university graduates and to send them to the gallows, the state must prove that they killed the Franks boy within the limits of Cook county, the defense points out. This, the defense claims, can never be proved.

If the state fails to prove that Franks was killed in Cook county, the case is no longer under the jurisdiction of Chicago courts.

And if the case goes to another Illinois county or to an Indiana court again it will be impossible for the prosecution to prove where Robert Franks met death, the defense claims.

SUES ON ACCOUNT

Robert O. Kennedy, local physician, today filed suit in Justice Steeb's court against William T. Curry, demanding $16 on an account, alleged to be past due. The case has been set for trial Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

INTERVENTION IS DISCUSSED

Foreign Powers Expected to Make Gestures in Brazil

Buenos Aires, July 19—Intervention of foreign powers in Brazil to protect the rights of their nationals was discussed by the Argentine press today.

Italy and other European nations are expected to make an immediate gesture of protest against the inability of the government at Rio de Janeiro to give assurance that the rights of foreigners will be maintained.

The request that a United States warship be sent to Santos to maintain right of American citizens and protect American property there led to anticipation of similar action by other nations.

WEWEE LOCATED IN CONNERSVILLE

Former Rushville Man, Wanted For Assault on Girl, Arrested at 5 O'clock This Morning

TAKEN BACK TO RICHMOND

Police Fail to Locate Him Around Old Haunts Here Friday—Straughns Man Released

(Special to The Daily Republican)
Connersville, Ind., July 19—Allan Wewee, age 24 years, of Richmond and formerly of Rushville, who has been a fugitive for the past three days, since his alleged attack on a nine-year-old girl of Richmond, was captured here this morning at five o'clock by Patrolman C. A. Elwood.

The Richmond police came here after Wewee this morning and he will be arraigned in court some time today.

It was reported here that the girl's condition was serious and that Wewee may face a more serious charge than first contemplated.

Patrolman Elwood learned that Wewee was staying with a family here and went to the house early today alone to capture Wewee, who surrendered at the point of a gun.

Richmond, Ind., July 19—Police believed for a short time that their three-day search for Allan Wewee, wanted for an alleged attack on nine-year-old Evelyn Grieswell, had been brought to a successful conclusion Friday when Sheriff Dan Chapman and Officer Cessie Kendall brought in from Straughns station a youth whose resemblance to Wewee's description caused him to be held there.

The suspect, along with another young man who was traveling with him was brought here to police headquarters, where it was found that although his clothing corresponded with that worn by Wewee, his appearance did not correspond with Wewee's description. After detailed Continued on Page Two

Approves $14,500 of the $30,000 Asked by City Council to Buy Fire Truck and For Improvements

TO BE ADVERTISED FOR SALE

Phil Wilk, county auditor, this morning received the final order on $30,000 bond issue for the city of Rushville, which was contested by remonstrators.

The state tax board in their ruling received this morning, approved $14,500 and disapproved $15,500 of the issue, which is the same as the original order issued last Saturday. The order specifies it is to be used to buy additional fire equipment and provide a further water supply.

Now that the order has been officially entered here, the next step in the procedure by the city is to advertise the bond issue for sale. The law sets out that the notice of the bond sale must be given by one publication in the local newspapers of different political faith, and published in one newspaper of general circulation at Indianapolis. The one notice of the bond sale must be published at least ten days prior to the sale of the bonds.

MAY DOMINATE THE CONFERENCE

Secretary of State Hughes Will Take No Part, But Will Be at Hand for Consultations

HAS ARRIVED IN LONDON

Finds Conference on Experts Plan Still Deadlocked by French and British Dispute

By LLOYD ALLEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, July 19—Taking no part in the reparations conference, but here at hand where Ambassador Kellogg and the American participants can consult him, Secretary Hughes was looked upon today by European statesmen as the possible dominating figure behind the scenes of this, the fifteenth inter-allied effort since Versailles to make Germany pay.

Secretary Hughes arrived in London to find the conference still deadlocked in committee stage—France and Britain disputing over the former's right to a free hand with Germany in case she is adjudged to have defaulted payments. The committee that is considering recommendations on this matter met today and reported progress but efforts of the Italian, Belgian and American members failed to reconcile the British and French viewpoints.

In an interview, Hughes reiterated he would take no part in the inter-allied conference but said he was "making no attempt to conceal American interest in the experts plan."

Hughes arranged to meet Premier MacDonald of Britain and Premier Herriot of France personally, but informally, while here.

The presence of the head of the state department in London will obviously facilitate action by Ambassador Kellogg, Colonel James A. Logan, Jr., and other Americans who are taking part in the conference.

They now will be able frequently to confer with Hughes instead of being obliged as previously to use the cable.

Washington, July 19—Senator K. Wheeler, Democrat of Montana, has decided to accept the nomination for vice president on Senator Robert M. La Follette's independent presidential ticket, according to information here direct from Wheeler.

Wheeler planned to make a statement about noon today announcing his acceptance and explaining his reasons for the decision to run with La Follette.

SUMMER SCHOOL ENROLLMENT BIG

Of the 1,550 Students Taking Courses at Indiana, Nine Are Listed From Rush County

SPECIAL TEACHER'S COURSE

Faculty of 124 Teachers Conducts 275 Courses at the University During Summer

Bloomington, Ind., July 19—The thirty-fifth annual summer session of Indiana university includes in its enrollment of approximately 1550 students Miss Lillian Mullins, Birney D. Parthing, and Eugene B. Butler, of Rushville, and six other Rush county students.

The total enrollment this year is about 100 less than that for last year. Advanced students are approximately the same in number as last year, while the new students number about 100 less than at last year's session. This is thought to be due to the ruling by the State Board of Education that high school graduates in order to qualify for teaching positions under the new law should begin their required year of training at the opening of the regular fall term of 1924 rather than in the summer term. As a result, the enrollment in the fall is expected to be heavier than usual among students who expect to take up teaching as a profession.

More than 400 students have signed up for the special three weeks' intensive course for teachers which starts August 9 as a supplementary session to the regular eight and one-half weeks' summer term. For those taking the extra course, a heavy schedule of daily recitations and correspondingly heavy requirements for outside work have been arranged. An additional two and one-half weeks' session will be held.

U. S. VICE CONSUL BEATEN TO DEATH

Native Mob of Tehran, Persia, Represents Attempt of Major Imbrie to Photograph "Magic Fountain"

ANOTHER AMERICAN WOUNDED

American and European Colonies in Persian Capital Are in State of Consternation

Washington, July 19—Upon receipt of official confirmation today of the killing of Robert W. Imbrie, American vice consul at Tehran, the United States government prepared vigorous action to secure amends for the murder.

Confirmation of the killing of Imbrie arrived at the state department from the American legation at Tehran.

The first news of the killing of Imbrie was received by the state department today from Imbrie's wife, who is at Tehran. An official confirmation from the legation was received later.

Tehran, Persia, July 19—Major Robert W. Imbrie, American vice consul, was beaten to death by a native mob here Thursday.

The Persians resented an attempt by Major Imbrie to photograph a so-called "magic fountain" of which the natives stand in awe.

An American who was with the consul was severely wounded and is in a hospital.

Robert Whitney Imbrie was born in Washington, D. C., April 23, 1884 and was graduated from George Washington University in 1905. He was engaged in the practice of law 1909-15. He volunteered in the French Army in 1915 and served until 1917. Appointed vice consul at Petrograd August 24, 1917, he later was assigned as vice consul at Viborg December 22, 1919. He was sent to Constantinople as vice consul October 13, 1920.

Major Imbrie was married less than two years ago to Miss Katherine Gillespie of New Rochelle, New York, when she was directing the Near East Relief orphanage in the former Turkish capital.

London, July 19—The American and European colonies are in a state of consternation, following reports from Tehran, the Persian capital, that Major Imbrie, U. S. vice consul, had died as a result of wounds sustained at the hands of a mob which beat him to death. Another American is seriously wounded in a hospital according to the Evening News, which lacks full particulars of the affair.

HEARD DR. WEDDERSPOON

J. H. Schell Says Minister Coming to Chautauqua is Pleasing Speaker

J. H. Schell, former secretary of the Rush county chautauqua, heard the Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon, who will be at the chautauqua this year, at St. James Methodist Episcopal church, of which he is pastor, in Chicago last Sunday.

Mr. Schell says that Dr. Wedderspoon is a man of great ability and a very pleasing speaker. The Rushville man talked with him regarding his forthcoming visit to Rushville and he was very much interested in coming.

Dr. Wedderspoon is one of the foremost ministers in Chicago. He does not make many chautauque addresses and the Rush county program committee regards it as fortunate that it was possible to include him on this year's program.

CIRCUS BOOKED FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Feature Attraction, Out of the Ordinary, Will Appeal to Children of Rush County

FROM AGES "SIX TO SIXTY"

Children's Circus Will Appear Here at The Assembly on Wednesday Night August 13

There is at least one circus that will visit Rushville this season, and it is scheduled to appear here Wednesday night, August 13, at 8:30 o'clock.

This circus is the Children's Circus, one of the headline attractions for the Rush County Chautauqua, which will be held this year from August 10 to the 17, inclusive.

The attraction for Wednesday night, August 13, is heralded as "what the children have always wanted", and it will not only appeal to the children, but also prove a good attraction and worth one's time for the grown-ups.

The program consists of so many entertaining features of real merit that the age of the children will not matter, according to the laymen bureau that has charge of the bookings for the circus. "Children from six to sixty will be entertained as they have never before been treated, with such a performance on the Chautauqua stage," according to the announcements.

In commenting upon this special feature of the Rush County Chautauqua for August 13, the laymen bureau says as follows:

Here are some of the things which this company of three people presents. A wonderful troupe of trained cockatoos who do marvelous things which are almost unbelievable. This feature has been a big act on the largest vaudeville circuit for many years, and we have had to make a Continued on Page Two

LARGE FORCES ARE THROWN ABOUT MINES

Effort Made to Prevent Interference in Oklahoma Territory Where Open Shop Prevails

WORKERS DRIVEN FROM MINES

(By United Press)

Wilburton, Okla., July 19—Large forces of guards were thrown today around mines in this territory operating on an open shop basis to prevent threatened interference by union sympathizers.

National guard troops were held in readiness to be rushed here in case the situation gets beyond control of local authorities.

The first outbreak occurred when 100 sympathizers with miners on strike descended on the Kati-Inla Mine, disarmed guards and forced 175 men to leave the works.

Sheriff Austin Park said he had been informed non-union workers in the Deaguan and McConnell Mine were warned that if they reported for work today they would be driven out. He sent a squad of deputies to protect the men and property.

TWO WEEKS UNTIL THE FIRST CAMP

Rotary-Kiwanis Fund Provided For Boys Who Are Unable to Attend For Financial Reasons

MEETING MONDAY EVENING

Boys Will Be Taken to Camp and Brought Home in Busses—Mercer Park History Given

With only two weeks elapsing before the opening of the first Rush county boys' camp at Turkey Run state park, active preparations are being made for the month's outing by D. R. Merrell, local Scoutmaster, and the boys' work committees of the Rotary and Kiwanis club, who are cooperating with him.

The committees announced today that there is a fund available to be used to help those boys who wish to attend one of the camps, but are not able to do so because of financial reasons.

All boys who have not yet signed up for Turkey Run and who would like to go are asked to meet at the court house assembly room Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Every boy in Rushville who wants to go to camp should be at this meeting.

It will help matters considerably if the boys who attend will be prepared to tell Mr. Merrell or some other member of the committee just how much they can pay on the two weeks period. The fund is available for boys of either the younger or older boys camp and no boy should feel at all embarrassed by attending the meeting. Parents are also asked to be present Monday night if they have any questions to ask regarding the camps.

Final arrangements for camp will be made after Monday night and but few more boys can be accommodated after that date.

The committee in charge consists of Clarence Walden, Al Spanagel, Raymond C. Hargrove, Curtis Hester, George Davis, Frank Abernethy, George Wilcox, Charles F. Wilson and Roy E. Harrold.

The younger boys' camp will begin August 4 and continue for two weeks and on the eighteenth, the older boys' camp will open and run until August 30.

Efforts are now being made to engage busses to haul the boys to and from the camps. Beginning next week lists of equipment and instructions will be published, and it is urged that they all be cut out of the paper and preserved for future use.

THRESHING WILL GET UNDER WAY NEXT WEEK

Two Companies Ready to Start This Morning and Others Plan to Begin Monday

OPEN IN UNION AND POSEY

Threshing will not become general Coulter farm in Anderson township, first of next week, it was predicted today.

The first wheat threshed in the county this year was on the Riley throughout Rush county before the and it averaged about twenty-eight bushels to the acre.

No other threshing was scheduled for the southern part of the county this week, but a number of companies are planning to begin Monday.

A company of threshing started on the Roy Alexander farm near Gings this morning. A few bushels were run through the machine Friday evening and it was found that the grain was not as dry as it should be, but Mr. Alexander was assured that the wheat would be accepted at the Reed elevator in Gings, and threshing began in earnest this morning.

Another threshing company was prepared to begin work on the Thomas McCoy farm in Posey township this morning, but trouble with the machine delayed the start. If repairs could be made, it was planned to thresh today.

NOTIFICATION WILL BE WITHIN MONTH

Formal Ceremony Notifying Coolidge of His Nomination Tentatively Set For August 19

TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON

General Charles G. Dawes Will be Told Few Days Later He Has Been Selected as Running Mate

Washington, July 19—The formal notification of President Coolidge will take place in Washington about the 19th of August and similar ceremonies will be held at Evanston, Illinois a few days later when General Charles G. Dawes will be formally told that he has been selected as the running mate for Coolidge.

The speech of acceptance by the President will, according to close friends, be a document that will be understood by all the people. It will no doubt, be as plain as his first message to congress, which it will be remembered brought forth thousands of letters and telegrams from all sections of the nation, complimenting him upon his honest declaration of principles and the straight-forward stand he had taken upon public questions. There will again be demonstrated to the people that the President is unafraid, that he refuses to use high sounding phrases in order to catch votes, or to offer to the people some theoretical cure-all that everyone who stops to think will realize could not be put in force. Coolidge has always been honest with the people. He believes that they should be told the truth. He believes in their intelligence and their desire to do the right thing by their government, and he means to see that their government does the right thing by them.

Coolidge is the kind of a President who believes it his duty to use all the power of his office to see that the people of the United States are given a square deal. He believes it his duty to aid in bringing the greatest amount of prosperity possible to all sections of the nation. He takes his job seriously and thinks less of the great honor of being president than he does of the opportunity that has been given to him to be of real service to his fellow citizens.

Continued from Page One heavy guarantee in order to secure it. One member of this company is a clever juggler, a feature which chautauqua committees have been asking for in vain for the past ten years. He is also a magician and will entertain the children by his sleight of hand. A Punch and Judy show is also a part of the act—something that all of the children have heard about but few of them have seen. To cap the climax a most delightful and jolly clown takes the part of the juggler and magician.

Altogether it is the most complete novelty act which has been placed on the Chautauqua programs for years.

"The Rejected Woman"

For the first time in their distinguished careers, Alma Rubens and Conrad Nagel have been starred together. They will be seen in "The Rejected Woman," which came to the Princess theatre Friday for two days. These two players have achieved world-wide reputation for their ability to portray dramatic roles of modern life, and in this latest feature of Distinctive Pictures they have opportunities for acting never before afforded them by any of their film plays.

"The Rejected Woman" is a society romance written especially for these stars by John Lynn, veteran screen dramatist, and directed by Albert Parker.

The story is a novel treatment of the theme, "Must a girl have pretty clothes to get along?" This theme is developed in a swiftly moving drama with scenes in Canada and in New York. It has been lavishly set and costumed by the producers.

The principals of the supporting cast are: Wyndham Standing and Leonora Hughes, the celebrated dancer. Others in the picture are George Masquarrie, Bela, Lugosi Antonio D'Algy, Mme. La Violette, Aubrey Smith and Fred Burton.

Mary Carr in Leading Role

"Broadway Broke" is the significant title of the Murray W. Garsson special production from Saturday Evening Post story by Earl Derr Biggers, which opened at the Castle theatre for an engagement of two days last night. But, there is more to the meaning of the title than just that.

By remarkable coincidence, Mary Carr is playing the leading feminine role and the story might have been written around her career on the Great White Way. Playing opposite her is Percy Marmont, star of the film version of A. S. M. Hutchinson's novel, "If Winter Comes."

"There is a world of meaning to the phrase, 'Broadway Broke,'" said Miss Carr. "The average individual pines the ragged chap sitting on a park bench, or on the cold curb at Times Square—and rightfully so. But that man is just as liable to be broke anywhere. It's all one to him whether he's broke on Broadway or State street. The real tragedy is in the man or woman who is actually 'Broadway Broke.'"

WEWEE LOCATED IN CONNERSVILLE

Continued from Page One investigation had disclosed that neither was Wewee, the two young men were released. They said they were from Hamilton, Ohio, and on their way to Indianapolis.

At about the same hour that word came of the arrest of the two suspects at Straughn, the police answered two other calls from in the city reporting the appearance of men resembling Wewee. Both reports were found erroneous.

During the past two days dozens of reports have come to police headquarters of Wewee's appearance in various neighborhoods in the city, in the country surrounding and even far over in Ohio. Every one of these reports has been followed down by the police or sheriff, in the belief that Wewee in the end is likely to be caught through this means.

Richmond police officers' search for Wewee in his old haunts here Friday was fruitless.

Dudley, a former Rushville newspaper man, who is now city editor of the Richmond Item, led the Richmond police down here yesterday afternoon because of his familiarity with local surroundings.

NARCOTIC LAW IS VIOLATED TO BUY 25 STEEL CARS
Sale of Paregoric to Drug Addicts to be Probed in State
Indianapolis, Ind., July 19—Federal agents have started a drive to stamp out sale of paregoric to drug addicts. The drive is to extend all over Indiana, according to officials in charge of the campaign.
Arrest of two Indianapolis druggists, signaled the beginning of the drive. The druggists were charged with violation of the Harrison narcotic act.
Each fluid ounce of paregoric contains nearly two grains of opium according to the agents and its sale to known or suspected addicts constitutes a violation of the drug laws.

Union Traction Company to Finance Purchase in Notes and Bonds
Indianapolis, Ind., July 19—The state public service commission has authorized the Union Traction company to issue $622,000 in short time notes and $1,000,000 in bonds to finance the purchase of new equipment including 25 new steel cars.
Recommendation that the traction company purchase steel cars and scrap the old wooden cars was made by the commission in its report on the Fortville wreck in which nearly 200 persons lost their lives early last February.
The commission's report said the death toll would probably have been much smaller if the cars which crashed head on had been of steel instead of wood construction.

The letters "K. K. K." are seared upon his back. But Rev. Orrin Van Loon of Berkeley, Mich., a Detroit suburb, insists he remembers nothing of the branding. An old man's testimony:—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.—2 Timothy 4:7.

Prayer:—Most Merciful God, we have often failed and refused to fight, but Thy mercy has given us another chance; keep us steadfast in the faith from now on.

Diamonds at Home

Many people have heard and scores of others have read "Acres of Diamonds", a lecture delivered thousands of times by Russell H. Conwell.

It is founded upon the incident of the restless man who dreamed of riches in a land afar off; who sold his farm and searched the world for riches, only to die a lonely, unattended pauper in a far-away land.

The children of the man who bought his farm, while playing in the garden one day, found pretty stones, which their father discovered were diamonds, and there were actually "acres of diamonds"—fabulous wealth—on the farm the first man had sold and abandoned in order to search for riches he imagined existed elsewhere.

But the man who couldn't see his "acres of diamonds" was typically human. The grass in our neighbor's yard is always greener; his flowers bloom more beautifully; he seems to get along so much more easily than we; in sum, he has all the good luck and we have all of the misfortune.

Isn't it about time that we begin to search for our "acres of diamonds"? Take stock of our many advantages, make the most of them and discount our disadvantages and be rid of them.

Neighboring communities have things we haven't. But we in turn have priceless possessions that they do not have.

The buyer of the farm with "acres of diamonds" did not leave the gems in the ground. Once discovered, he mined them, of course, and cashed in on his discovery.

Every community possesses its "acres of diamonds". The progress of each depends upon the ingenuity of the people in discovering them, mining them and selling them.

The people of Rush county are blessed with good soil, a climate suitable for diversified farming and rare marketing facilities.

Intelligent care and development of the soil, study of crop conditions and organized effort in selling will make our "acres of diamonds" profitable.

A Race For Kings

With two international efforts to span the globe by air under way, interest quickens at the reports of repeated reverses the aviators of the United States, France and England are overcoming in their mad dash for air supremacy.

It is veritably a race for kings,

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

WASHINGTON—Clem L. Shaver, whom John W. Davis has asked to run the Democratic presidential campaign, is a "little shaver," physically, but apparently measures up to all major league specifications as a political fox.

Shaver, who managed Davis' pre-convention campaign, never let it seem as a threat to other hopeful would-be candidates. He maintained it always as a sort of "last resort" candidacy, which in no way interfered with the fight being made to build up support for McAdoo and Smith, or even Ralston, Underwood or Glass.

He didn't allow the Davis boom to push or crowd, or to get puffed up unduly to a size where it might, invite the barbed harpoons of jealous rivals.

Shaver didn't swell around the corridors of the Waldorf or the aisles of Madison Square Garden, telling how, at the psychological moment, he would "put" Davis over.

A little gray faced, stoop-shouldered man who looked constantly tired, almost dejected, he simply told what a great chance the party had if it would only look to John W. Davis to save it from its troubles.

He rubbed nobody the wrong way, stepped on no tender toes, and got the good will of all groups for himself personally as well as for his candidate.

If it is a political diplomat Davis needs to weld his forces for the coming campaign, Shaver would seem to have qualified.

A MUCH less passive sort of person, one who believes in strong words and aggressive methods, is John M. Nelson, the manager of Senator La Follette's independent campaign.

Nelson, next to Nick Longworth, is the baldest man in Congress. But instead of the symmetrically rounded cranial dome of Longworth, Nelson's bare expanse of scalp exposes a rough-hewn head, suggestive of ability to withstand many bumps and to deliver as good as is sent—even butting in ram-fashion, with his head, when feet and fists fail.

It was Nelson who led the La Follette fight last fall for a revision of the House rules. He stood up, unmoved, against the most withering and devastating cynicism and satire the word warriors of Congress could direct against him.

He didn't care what the regulars thought of him or his fellows, or what they called him, so long as they amended the rules.

He checkmated every move to entangle him in parliamentary red tape, or to substitute for his proposals any political panacea of the "just-as-good" brand.

His bald head and bald speech were the highlights of that memorable battle.

THE title of "Bleeding Kansas" won by the Sunflower state because of the bitter battles between the abolitionists and pro-slavery groups preceding the Civil War, may properly be revived before the coming political holocaust is ended.

For Kansas is slated to become the geographical storm center of the political tornado, centering over the middle west, during the presidential campaign.

Orders have gone out from Republican headquarters that Kansas must be held secure, at all costs, against the assaults to be made upon it by the La Follette forces.

La Follette's forces, believing that the loss of Kansas by the Coolidge cohorts will deprive the president of a majority and send the election into Congress, will send their shock troops into action there.

ACTING ENVOY

Isaburo Yoshida, newly appointed counsellor and charge d'affaires of the Japanese embassy in Washington, is acting ambassador for his country in the United States now. Ambassador Masano Hanihara has returned to Tokyo on leave of absence. But in many quarters it is said he will not return, for his government, it is reported, is displeased with his work in view of the passage of the exclusion act.

TENNIS TOURNEY OPEN FOR BOYS

First Annual Open Western Meet for Boys And Juniors Will be Held at Culver

BEGINNING WEEK JULY 28

Young Tennis Aspirants Will be Given Opportunity to Enjoy Surroundings at the Lake

Culver, Ind., July, 18—The first annual open Western clay courts tennis tourney for boys and juniors will be held on the courts of Culver Military academy the week beginning July 28.

The tournament is the outgrowth of the Indiana state open boys' and juniors' championships held on the academy courts last summer. That meet attracted boys from Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio and the United States Lawn Tennis Association promptly recognized its appeal to the youthful players and advanced it to the rating of an official western event for 1924.

A particular attraction to the young tennis aspirants are the opportunities offered for a pleasant summer outing during the progress of the play. The courts are on the shores of Lake Maxinkuckee and the entire recreational and sports facilities of the Culver Summer Schools have been placed at the entertainment committee.

Swimming and boating will be especially featured for the visitors and lodging and meals will be furnished by the Summer Schools at nominal cost through arrangements made by the board of trustees as the school's contribution towards furthering boys' sports.

The entries in each class will be limited to sixty-four. Amateurs only are eligible. The age limit for boys is 15, and for juniors, 15 to 18. Cups will be awarded by the Culver Military Academy Tennis Club which will be host. H. A. Jeighton of the athletic staff of the academy is chairman of the committee and is in charge of the entries.

JACK ZIVIC LOOKS LIKE A CHAMPION

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 19—Of all the lightweights who aspire to the crown which Benny Leonard cannot much longer hope to wear, young Jack Zivic of Pittsburgh looks the most promising.

Four years ago, around this time, Jack and his brother Pete were knocking over little Hungarians and Swedes and Brazilians in amateur bouts at the Olympic games at Antwerp.

Since when, the Zivic brothers have risen—if you like—to the professional ranks. Pete, the elder, is a feather, Jack, is a lightweight.

This Jack is a workmanlike cuss, who is at present engaged with five or six other aspirants in a series of elimination bouts to see who is the best man to take a sock at Leonard—and probably a beating at the workmanlike hands of the champ.

Zivic disposed of the first two aspirants with whom he tangled, although he lost to Ed Moran of New Orleans on a technical foul. He was

Two picked golf teams, representing the best in America and England, will battle at the Garden City course, New York, in September for the Walker Cup.

The English picked have already been selected and will be headed by Cyril Tolley, former amateur champion, and recent winner of the French open championship.

The rest of the invading team will be made up of O. B. Bristow, C. L. Hazlet, W. L. Hope, D. H. Kyle, W. A. Murray, Robert Scott Jr., Michael Scott, T. A. Torrance and E. F. Storey.

The American team has yet to be named.

administering such a scientific, if somewhat over-clever, beating to the southern veteran, that there was never any doubt as to which was the better man.

Then came Sid Barbarian, an ambitious young Armenian boy from Detroit, and he was handily knocked off by the Pittsburgher.

Zivic is a pleasure to watch. He is more active than Leonard, but there is something in his business-like way of going about things that reminds one of the title-holder. The former amateur can take on all kinds, but a rushing, tearing fighter is his particular dish. Jack is a two-handed fighter. He can keep his head and weather the worst storms. And he can hit, although not as hard as Leonard.

By and large, the Pittsburgh boy looks best of the challengers. He is a style which leads one to look for big things from him in the future. He has a head, and uses it.

Leonard is gaining weight, and soon will be unable to defend his title. He would beat Zivic now, because of his greater defensive skill and his knowledge of the fighting game, but Jack would give him a tougher battle than any of the others.

For an example of gameness, the performance of the negro lad, De-Hart Hubbard, of the University of Michigan, in the finals of the broad jump in the Olympics at Paris is hard to beat.

On his first leap, something more than 24 feet, Hubbard suffered a

FAKE ARRESTS ON STATE GAME LAWS

Department of Conservation Reports That Bogus Game Wardens Have Been Operating

MAKE "PRIVATE" SETTLEMENT

Those Accosted by Game Wardens Should Make Them Show Their Proper Identifications

Indianapolis, Ind., July 19—Reports have reached the fish and game division of the state conservation department that fake game wardens are operating in some sections of the state, arresting fishermen—frequently without cause—and blinding them into a cash settlement without the formality of a court hearing.

In order that the public experience no difficulty in recognizing a duly authorized warden and that this vicious practice may be abolished, George N. Mannfeld, division chief, today asked that when persons are accosted by a game warden, the officer be made to show his badge and commission. If he is duly authorized warden of the conservation department, will not hesitate to produce his credentials.

Mannfeld explained that badges carried by state wardens are round in shape and bear this inscription: Indiana Fish and Game Warden, the Department of Conservation. Each badge also has a number. The old badges issued prior to the department's creation bear no number and are star shaped. They were recalled years ago but not all recovered.

No warden has authority to take money or to settle case. Mannfeld said. If a violation is discovered by him he is charged only with the duty of making the arrest and obtaining such evidence possible to prosecute the offender in an authorized court of the state. Reports to conservation officials indicate that several wealthy and prominent men in the north part of the state, arrested by whom they supposed were wardens, made cash settlements in preference to going into court. Several cases reported actually showed the men "help up" had actually violated no law.

Refusing to quit, although the coaches would have had him do so, assuring him that his negro teammate, Gordon, would win, Hubbard took one more jump.

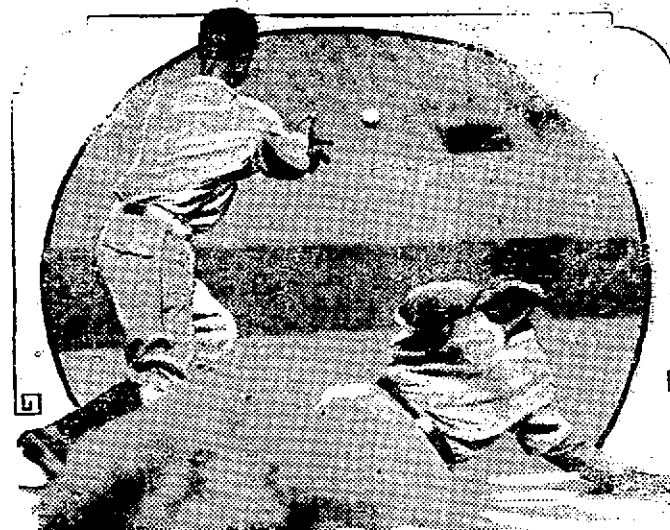

He was suffering torture from his injury, but he hit the take-off gamely and hurled himself through the air, his jump measuring 24 feet 6 inches.

Then flesh and blood could withstand no more, and the game little negro lay in agony until he was carried into the dressing room. Half an hour later, while trainers still were working over him, he learned that his effort had been successful and that he had the honor of being a first-place winner for Uncle Sam.

Fairmount—Parke McComb was awarded a prize for hauling the most people to church during a Sunday school attendance contest.

Jacksonville—Sixteen mules perished in a blaze that destroyed the mule barn of the Interstate coal company near here.

Opening of the 1924 Olympic Games

Here is the opening of the Olympic games at Colombes Stadium, Paris. Athletes of all nations participated in the parade preceding the preliminary events. The United States, needless to say, easily landed first place, with Finland finishing second.

Among the pretty pre-nuptial events that have been given for Miss Helen Scudder, a bride-elect of this month, was the wedding breakfast given by the Misses Mary and Jesse Anderson Friday morning at their home south of the city. The home was prettily decorated for the event in bouquets of summer flowers and covers were laid for twenty guests.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mahin will entertain at their home in North Jackson street, the members of the Progressive Boosters Class of the First Baptist church. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. R. W. Sage will be the assisting hostess.

Mrs. Horatio Havens entertained with a one o'clock luncheon Friday at her home in North Harrison, honoring her guests, the Misses Elizabeth and Georganna Tullar, of Detroit, Mich. Other out-of-town guests present were Miss Alice Elizabeth Harb, of Franklin, Ind., house guest of Miss Betty Waggoner, and Miss Frances Jaquith of Indianapolis, who is visiting Miss Spanagel, and Naomi Nash and Pauline Cotton, of north of the city.

This morning at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Brecheisen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brecheisen, and Vernon Hardwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hardwick, both residents of this city, were married at the Manse, 122 West Fifth street, by the Rev.

Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. They were accompanied by Mrs. Robert Marshall and Mrs. W. H. Rittenmier. The bride was beautiful in a dress of salmon colored crepe de chine and wore a corsage of Columbia roses. After a motor trip through the southern part of the state, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick will be at home to their friends at 203 West First street where they have furnished rooms. The bride is bookkeeper at the I. & C. Traction Company and the bridegroom is employed at the Coca Cola Bottling Works.

On Wednesday evening a number of relatives and friends delightfully surprised Mrs. Ernest Cummins at her home in Homer, honoring her fiftieth birthday anniversary. During the evening, which was spent socially, refreshments of brick ice cream, cake, candy and lemonade were served. Those who were present to enjoy the evening besides Mr. and Mrs. Cummins and daughter Mabel were: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Miller and daughter Frances Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller and daughter Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Abernathy, Mrs. Mary Anne Abernathy, Mrs. Ina Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown and daughter Mary Marjorie, Mrs. Mary Westerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Miller, daughter Ruth and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Rue Miller, William Brannan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Martin and daughter Sonoma, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Krammes and family, Mr. and Mrs.

FOR STREET

Here's the three-piece suit for summer as Paris sees it. A sleeveless frock of black crepe de chine with trimming of white embroidered, and a short, straight coat similarly adorned. It is particularly recommended for street wear.

The following girls enjoyed a winner roast and marshmallow toast Friday evening north of the city: The Misses Ruth Welber, Edna Waggoner, Rena Rout, Helen Connely, Elizabeth Goodbar, Katherine Williams, Helen Baker and Mrs. Bessie Levi.

Mrs. Clifford Gottman of Chicago, Ill., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cox in this city, entertained the members of her card club Friday afternoon. The guests enjoyed the hours over the card tables playing bridge, and dainty refreshments were served at the close.

The Clarksburg Diana Lodge, 536, Daughters of Rebekah, began the work of another term of six months, by the installation of new officers at a meeting held recently. Preceding the installation work, the regular routine of lodge work was taken up, including reports of the secretaries and treasurer, showing the affairs of the organization as being in good condition. The installation ceremony was conferred by Mrs. Ethel Osborn, installing officer appointed by Mrs. Alice Van Pelt, district deputy for Decatur county. TWO WEEKS UNTIL THE FIRST CAMP

Continued from Page One Turkey Run park have been printed and have increased the interest of boys of the community in the park. Further bits of interesting history of the park will be given next week. Today's chapter follows:

Late in 1921 there was acquired from the Hoosier Veneer Co., one hundred and ninety acres of land joining the park on the east and south. No suitable price could be arranged so it was necessary to resort to the power of eminent domain. The value of the land was set at $55 per acre, which price was paid. From this area all the large timber had been cut but there still remained a good cover of small trees. The topography is rugged and a series of interesting gullies is included.

This acquisition gave the park an outlet on the state highway and in order to make use of it a road was necessary. Such a winding scenic road was planned by the Division of Engineering of the Department and constructed by Roland Lake, state superintendent of Parks. At its junction with the old park road on the hill above the swinging bridge, a trestle 165 feet long and 45 feet high was erected to carry it across the deep gulch.

Up to this time this gulch had no name and the commission thought it fitting to name it Newby Gulch in honor of Arthur C. Newby an Indianapolis citizen who gave very substantial donations to make the preservation of Turkey Run possible.

At the entrance to the road from the State Highway a toll gate was erected with a small lodge for the gate keeper. This gate is a replica of those used in the toll roads of the state years ago and its significance here because each visitor must pay his toll of ten cents towards the maintenance and improvement of the park.

Leaving this part of the park and following the old park road past Camp Red Wing, where the Rush County boys will be located, and over the Turkey Run Hollow Arch, the visitor comes to a small path leading to the right. Following this path through a very beautiful portion of the woods we soon come to the little Old Log church. This place has been preserved as nearly as possible the way it was when the pioneers used it for a place of worship. The pulpit, benches and altar are all of the very crude type all work having been done by hand with only an axe, adze and drawing knife. In this church which is kept reverent at all times the campers hold their Sunday worship.

SHATTERED NERVES

Lady Says She Was In a Desperate Condition, But "Now In Splendid Health" After Taking Cardui.

Dale, Ind.—"About three years ago," says Mrs. Flora Roberts, of this place, "I had the 'flu', which left me in a desperate condition. I had a bad cough. I went down in weight to little over one hundred pounds. I took different medicines—did everything, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I hurt so badly in the chest at times I would have to go to the door to get my breath. "I would have the headache and... was so weak I felt like I would just have to sink down and stay there. "My nerves were shattered. I looked for something awful to happen—I would tremble and shake at a noise. "My mother said, 'Do try Cardui', and my husband insisted till I began to use it. I used two bottles of Cardui... and noted a big improvement in my condition. I kept up the Cardui and weigh 180 pounds. I am now in splendid health—sure am a firm believer in Cardui, for I'm satisfied it did the work. "After a weakening illness a tonic is needed to help regain lost strength. Many thousands of women have found Cardui exactly what they needed for this purpose. It may be just what you need. Try it. All druggists". NC-155
